

Limited edition photo print offer in aid of:

I am a local amateur photographer who was lucky enough to be included in the Dorset echo publication "Dorset a photographic journey" (Page 104), now in it's second print run.

(My image was donated to the publication, but I remain the copyright owner).

I have decided to run a limited edition print offer for charity, originally I was planning to raise as much as possible for Julia's House. However during my plans to set up this offer, some unfortunate news emerged, the death of Rifleman Johnathon Allott of 3 rifles, from Kinson, Bournemouth, who died on active service in Afghanistan on March 5th 2010.

Known to all who knew him as "Jonny", a kind and loving young man.

I am proud to have known "Jonny" and have decided to dedicate my image called "Light Fantastic" to the memory of Johnathon, and to raise even more funds and share the proceeds between the two charities.

"Jonny" loved children and he would have approved of raising funds for a Dorset based children's charity and "3 Rifles" in his memory.

"3 Rifles" have suffered the biggest loss of personnel (14 in six months) the largest of any one battlegroup in the last 60 years and are actively raising funds for their charity.

"LIGHT FANTASTIC" (Taken at the Great Dorset Steam Fair).

Dedicated to the memory of
Johnathon Michael Allott
Aged 19 years.
