

A different summer

Hello, my name is Victor and me and my friends think I'm stunning. In the past I've won best germ prize. I am also good at high-jacking host cells. I always win the battles against white blood cells, I escape with a sneeze. Then I somehow come back to the body. Right now I'm having an EPIC battle with the white blood cells, they don't stand a chance! "Right, battle time!!! YAAAARRRRRRR!" I charge with my spikes as sharp as needles. OO, look a whole crowd of host cells, "yay" but I have to fight off those horrid, vicious white blood cells. "Duck, swipe and charge!" Finally, I am at the host cells. "I command that all you cells turn into me, NOW!" Now there is millions of ME and nobody else. "MOOOOHAAAHAHA!" Now I have an army of my own I can fight more goodies. Uh-oh time for my escape route... "Darn darn darnty darn the nose is blocked by the dreaded face mask. It's a legend come true !!!" so now I'm stuck in this body all alone being attacked. "Goodies win, this summer I surrender!"

THE END
